Manish Sureshkumar counter punched to outwit Dhruv Sunish 6-3, 6-3 in the men's under-21 final of tennis in the Khelo India Youth Games at the Balewadi Sports Complex on Saturday.

Dhruv started well and took a 3-1 lead, unleashing winners at will, but he could not sustain such high quality play for long. The 19-year-old Manish, one of the bright prospects who has been beating some of the best players in the country, won seven games on the trot to turn the match around on its head.

The wiry Manish, coached by Sureshkumar Sonachalam in Chennai, did drop serve in the third game of the second set, but broke Dhruv's serve at love in the eighth game before serving the match out.

"I expected a good fight as Dhruv has beaten Sasi Kumar Mukund in the international circuit. I knew that he was capable of playing high quality tennis. I was happy with the way I played and knew that I would get back into the match", said Manish.

Suggesting that he did not have to face big serves as in the Challengers, Manish hoped that the gold would fetch him support.
"They may give scholarship. Most of the players struggle with the financial aspect. It is good to be in the government system through such a fine initiative," said the B.Com student of Loyola College, who expects to get a wild card for the Challenger in Chennai.

In the under-17 girls final, Prerna Vichare countered the fighting left-hander Priyanshi Bhandari for a 6-2, 5-7, 7-5 victory after an entertaining duel, to boost the gold medal haul for host Maharashtra.

She had earlier won the doubles title with Gargi Pawar.
Zeel Desai had the consolation of winning the women's under-21 doubles gold in partnership with Vaidehi

Chaudhari, after having been restricted to the bronze in singles.

Doubles gold
Dev Javia added the under-17 men's doubles gold in partnership with Krish Patel, for Gujarat, after having won the singles title earlier. The doubles gold came after a hard fight with a 13-11 victory in the super tie-break against Sushant Dabas and Diviesh Gahlot.
Maharashtra topped the tennis medals table with three gold, four silver and a bronze, ahead of Gujarat which won three gold, a silver and two bronze. Tamil Nadu and Madhya Pradesh were the other teams to win gold, while West Bengal, Telangana and Haryana managed to win a silver and a bronze each.

The results (finals):
Men: Under-21: Manish Sureshkumar bt Dhruv Sunish 6-3, 6-3.
Under-17: Doubles: Dev Javia & Krish Patel bt Sushant Dabas & Divesh Gahlot 6-3, 2-6, [13-11].
Women: Under-21: Doubles: Vaidehi Chaudhari & Zeel Desai bt Shrivalli Rashmikaa Bhamidipaty & Humera Shaik 6-3, 6-2.
Under-17: Prerna Vichare bt Priyanshi Bhandari 6-2, 5-7, 7-5.

Delight for TN under-21 basketball teams

Chandigarh has the last laugh in men's kabaddi

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
PUNE

Tamil Nadu controlled the climax well to beat Punjab 70-59 in the men's under-21 basketball final in the Khelo India Youth Games at the Shiv Chhatrapati Sports Complex, Balewadi, on Saturday.

After trailing 12-20 in the first quarter, Tamil Nadu turned the match by scoring 23 points in the second quarter while conceding only eight. The match was evenly fought thereafter, but Tamil Nadu retained the lead after the teams were on par at 41-41 midway through the third quarter.

The Tamil Nadu under-21 women's team also bagged the gold, while Punjab won both the under-17 gold medals.

In the kabaddi men's under-21 final, Chandigarh beat Tamil Nadu 41-40 through a super raid, after having recovered from the ashes with a penalty point.

Premature celebration

The Tamil Nadu substitutes jumped onto the mat in a premature celebration at 40-39 before the final whistle, and that revived Chandigarh's fortune.

Haryana won two of the other gold medals, while it

Real Kashmir beats Lajong

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
SHILLONG

Real Kashmir FC beat bottom-placed Shillong Lajong by a solitary goal to remain in the hunt for the I-League title in its debut season here on Saturday.

Zambian centre-back Aaron Katebe scored the all-important goal in the 74th minute, propelling the 'Snow Leopards' to second place on the league table with 25 points – five adrift of leader Chennai City FC – from 13 games.
