Leaders to stay under detention on I-Day

Former Chief Ministers and local MPs are unlikely to attend the celebrations in Srinagar

PEERZADA ASHIQ

Former Chief Ministers and the local MPs are unlikely to attend the first-ever Independence Day celebrations in I&K after its special status was revoked on August 5, as the current dispensation has put in place stringent security measures for celebrations in all districts.

Asked if the regional party leaders, including incarcerated National Conference president and Srinagar MP Farooq Abdullah and two former Chief Ministers Omar Abdullah and Mehbooba Mufti, would be allowed to attend the function in Srinagar, J&K government spokesman Rohit Kansal avoided a direct answer.

Careful analysis

"Any decision on this is taken only after careful analysis. The local assessment [of

The main function will be held at the Sher-i-Kashmir Park here where Governor Satva Pal Malik will hoist the tricolour. The government plans to hold such functions at all district and sub district levels.

Additional deployments and drone surveys of the venue had been completed to ward off any militant attack. "All preparations are complete," Mr. Kansal said.

'Situation improving'

The authorities said the overall situation in Kashmir had remained calm "due to which the government has further relaxed the prohibitory orders".

Mr. Gillani said only two persons were injured during street protests and were admitted to the hospitals here.

Lift all gags on freedom of speech in Valley: activists

'People of J&K must be allowed to express their protest'

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

A group of activists who visited the Kashmir Valley have demanded that all means of communication landline telephones, mobile phones and Internet - be restored with immediate effect.

The group comprising economist Jean Drèze, Kavita Krishnan of the CPI(ML), Maimoona Mollah of the All India Democratic Women's Association and Vimal Bhai of the National Alliance of People's Movements toured the Valley from August 9 to

The activists were not allowed to show video clips and photographs by the Club of India where they

Mr. Dreze said, "Permission was refused to us to show the videos. We were told that the projector was not working but the management is under pressure and surveillance."

When asked how the group moved around since the Valley had been under "curfew" like conditions, one of them said "it was difficult to move but not impossible". "We met two victims of pellet gun injuries in SMHS hospital in Srinagar. The two young men [Waqar Ahmad and Wahid] had faces, arms and torso full of pellets. Their eyes were bloodshot and blinded," the activists said in a statement.

Shah Faesal detained in Delhi, taken to Srinagar

Former IAS officer was barred from going abroad

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Kashmiri leader Shah Faesal, a former IAS officer, was stopped from flying out of the country at the Delhi airport and packed off to Srinagar where he has been placed under preventive detention, a friend and a government official confirmed. The friend told The Hindu that when Mr. Faesal reached the immigration desk around 1.30 a.m. on Wednesday, he was told that he had a lookout notice

"The authorities had his photograph and the notice, on the basis of which he was stopped from boarding a flight to Istanbul. He was on the way to Harvard Kennedy School in the U.S. to complete his course," the friend

According to him, Mr. Faesal telephoned his wife from New Delhi and told her that he had been questioned by the authorities at the airport regarding an interview he gave to the BBC on Tuesday.

Mr. Faesal, a topper of the 2009 UPSC Civil Services Exam, had told the channel, "It's my generation which has now got the taste of betrayal.'

A senior government official said that Mr. Faesal was flown to Srinagar where he has been held under "preventive detention". The official clarified that he was not arrested under the Public Safety Act (PSA)

Congress leader had offered to visit the Valley without any conditions

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT SRINAGAR

The Jammu and Kashmir government on Wednesday said it would get in touch with Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on his request to visit proposed Territory.

Governor Satya Pal Malik has already referred the matter to the local administration, an official spokesman said. "The administration will get in touch with the MP at a convenient time," the official said.

He said Mr. Gandhi had taken four days to respond on the issue.

"At present, the entire State administration is preoccupied with making arran-

Mr. Gandhi, in response to a statement made by the Governor, on Tuesday had tweeted his desire to visit Jammu and Kashmir.

On Wednesday, he again asked the Governor when he

His tweet came after the "Dear Maalik ji, I saw your Governor's office late on feeble reply to my tweet. I Tuesday evening issued a statement accusing Mr. Gandhi of putting too many conditions and trying to create "unrest" over the Centre's decision to end J&K's special status.

"Rahul Gandhi is politicising the matter by seeking to bring a delegation of Opposition leaders to create further unrest and problems for the common people. He has put forth many conditions for visiting J&K, including meeting mainstream leaders under detention," the statement said. "Since the Governor had never invited him with so many preconditions, he has referred the case to the police and administration to examine the request further," it added.

Restrictions lifted in Jammu

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Restrictions in Jammu have been completely lifted but will continue for a while longer in some places in Kashmir, a senior Jammu and Kashmir police officer said on Wednesday and emphasised that the situation is totally under control.

Additional Director-General Munir Khan said there were localised incidents in various parts of Srinagar and other districts in the Valley, but these were contained and dealt with locally.

There have been no major injuries to anyone, he said at a press conference.

Pakistan PM addresses PoK Assembly

MEHMAL SARFRAZ

Prime Minister Imran Khan addressed a special session of the PoK legislative assembly on Wednesday, marking Pakistan's Independence Day.

Mr Khan said he would be the Ambassador of Kashmir at all international forums and raise his voice for hapless Kashmiris.

Comparing the ideology of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) to Nazism, Mr Khan spoke of a battle of ideologies.

"Now the world is looking at Kashmir and also Pakistan. We will internationalise the issue of Kashmir. The world must understand how dangerous RSS ideology is...the kind of statements coming out regarding Kash-
