Directions (Q.No 41-50): In the following questions, you have a brief passage with 5 questions following the passage. Read the passage carefully and choose the best answer to each question out of the four alternatives.

Journalists argue over functions of a newspaper. I feel that a provincial paper's purpose is not only to present and project the news objectively and imaginatively, but to help its readers to express themselves more effectively, canalizing their aspirations, making more articulate their demands. A newspaper should reflect the community it serves - warts and all. When the mirror is held to society it reveals neglect, injustice, ignorance or complacency. It should help to eradicate them. It would be pretentious to think that a newspaper can change the course of world affairs - but at the local limit it can exert influence, it can probe, it can help get things done. The individual's voice must not be stifled. Instead, the readers should be encouraged to express their opinions, fears, hopes, and their grievances on this platform.

- How can a newspaper influence local affairs?
1) By focusing on world affairs
2) By influencing public opinion through half truths
3) By encouraging the readers to accept their grievances
4) By probing into the ills of society and rallying support for change
- How can the readers air their grievances?
1) By writing to journalists
2) By supporting the local newspaper
3) By writing to their local newspaper
4) By being complacent
- In this passage the writer highlights the fact that:
1) Journalists differ in their opinion on the function of a newspaper
2) A newspaper should reflect the community it serves.
3) A newspaper should only concentrate on local affairs.

- News paper can eradicate injustice
- The expression "warts and all" in the passage means:
1) Hopes and fears
2) With no attempt to conceal blemishes and inadequacies
3) The community's problems
4) The reader's grievances
- What is the main purpose of a newspaper?
1) Encourage the readers to be pretentious
