

PROPOSAL FOR THREE ANDHRA CAPITALS

Amaravati farmers accuse Jagan of
'politics of revenge'

REENIVAS JANYALA
HYDERABAD, DECEMBER 19

FARMERS FROM 29 villages of Amaravati, who gave up their land for the Andhra Pradesh capital, started a three-day hunger strike Thursday near the state Secretariat at Velagapudi to protest the government's proposal to establish multiple capitals.

Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy on Tuesday said his government was considering the move with the aim of decentralising development. Making a statement in the Assembly during a discussion on Amaravati capital city, Jagan said Visakhapatnam could be developed as the executive capital, Kurnool as the judicial capital and Amaravati as the legislative capital.

The proposal sparked protests in the 29 villages which constitute the capital city of Amaravati as envisaged by former chief minister N Chandrababu Naidu.

On Thursday, hundreds of farmers marched from Mandadam — where nearly 90 per cent of farmers gave away land for construction of the capital — towards the Secretariat. They carried black flags and placards with the slogan: "Save Rajdhami".

B Narasimha Rao, who gave 20 acres of land, accused Jagan of going back on his assurances that the capital would not be shifted. "Farmers of this region gave 33,000 acres to the TDP government, which has given back developed plots. The land rates were good until the government changed and now prices are falling. If the capital is shifted, the lives of thousands of Amaravati farmers will be ruined," Rao said. Bezudha Ramesh, whose family gave up 100 acres, said farmers would suffer due to YSRC's "politics of revenge". "New governments do not completely scrap any project that was started by the previous government. Due to this politics of revenge, there is lot of uncertainty and farmers are going to suffer if the capital is shifted," he said.

Finance and Legislative Affairs Minister B Rajendranath said establishing three capitals was just an idea and not a final decision.

Information and Public Relations Minister P Venkata Ramaiah alleged that the protests are politically motivated. "People from all regions of the state support the idea of establishing three capitals for all-round development of the state. These protests are sponsored by the opposition party."

HETERO DRUGS FIGURES IN CHARGESHEET AGAINST JAGAN

Firm named by CBI in assets case to develop AP schools

REENIVAS JANYALA
HYDERABAD, DECEMBER 19

THE ANDHRA Pradesh government on Thursday signed agreements with five pharmaceutical companies to develop 2,566 of 45,000 government schools in the state and improve facilities in these institutions. Among these companies is Hetero Drugs, which figures in a CBI chargesheet filed against Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy in the disproportionate assets case, which is going on at a special CBI court in Hyderabad.

The chargesheet against Hetero Drugs, which has been handed over 402 government schools, states that when Jagan's father, late Y S Rajashekara Reddy, was the chief minister of undivided Andhra Pradesh, Hetero Drugs Ltd invested in Jagan Mohan's companies. In return, the CBI alleged, the company received several favours from the government.

Based on the CBI chargesheet, the Enforcement Directorate had sealed 75 acres of land of prime property allotted to Hetero Drugs in Hyderabad, as also a fixed deposit of Rs 3 crore belonging to the firm.

YS Jagan Mohan Reddy

Hetero Drugs is owned by Dr P B S Reddy. Two directors of the firm, Attari Venkata Narasa Reddy and Partha Saradhi Reddy Bandi, were named in the CBI chargesheet for investing close to Rs 20 crore in Jagathi Publications, owned by Jagan Mohan Reddy, which publishes Sakshi Telugu newspaper and airs the Sakshi News TV channels.

The Indian Express could not get a comment from the company's representatives on this development despite attempts.

On November 14, the Chief Minister had announced that the state government will improve infrastructure in all 45,000 government schools in the state. He did not specify at the time that private companies will be tasked with the responsibility to develop their infrastructure.

Under the government's 'Nadu Nedu' programme, thousands of government schools in AP are set to undergo a major renovation under a Rs 12,000-crore exercise. Apart from repairing crumbling walls and ceilings, a major component of the plan is to build separate toilets for boys and girls in 45,000 government schools — 15,575 in the first phase — build new classrooms, provide safe drinking water and secure the schools with compound walls and gates.

After considering the financial situation of the state, the government decided to hand over the programme to renovate and develop the schools to private firms. The agreement was signed with Hetero Drugs, Vasudha Pharma, Adileela Foundation, Rain Carbon, and Laurus Labs.

Together, these firms would contribute over Rs 85 crore for development of infrastructure in these schools, it was announced.

As per the agreement, Hetero Drugs would take part in development of 402 schools and contribute over Rs 20 crore; Vasudha Pharma would contribute around Rs 21 crore to develop 428 schools; Rain Carbon will contribute Rs 1.65 crore for development of 66 schools; the Adileela Foundation is to develop 281 schools and contribute Rs 25 crore; while Laurus Labs would spend Rs 18 crore for development of 359 schools, it was announced.

Representatives of the companies signed memoranda of understanding with the Social Responsibility Wing of the AP government in the presence of Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy, PTI reported.

The Chief Minister said 45,000 government schools across the state would be developed under the 'Nadu-Nedu' programme with a total expenditure of Rs 12,000 crore. "The state is facing a serious financial crisis. But we can't ignore development of infrastructure and facilities in schools and hospitals. I thank the companies for their support to the programme," Jagan said, according to PTI.

UP teen dies 5 days
after being set on fire

Her uncle in jail on charges of sexually assaulting her, setting her on fire

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
LUCKNOW, DECEMBER 19

FIVE DAYS after she was allegedly assaulted sexually and set on fire by her uncle, with whom she was reportedly in a relationship with, an 18-year-old girl from Fatehpur district of Uttar Pradesh succumbed to injuries on Thursday.

The girl had suffered around 75 per cent burns and was at a hospital in Kanpur. The 25-year-old accused was arrested on Saturday and sent to jail after being produced before a magistrate.

Confirming the girl's death, senior police officers on Thursday maintained that they have evidence suggesting that she was not set on fire by the accused and that she took the extreme step minutes after a panchayat directed her and her uncle to end the relationship.

According to police, the panchayat had directed the man to stay away from the village till the girl's marriage. It was also mentioned in the panchayat that both the man and the girl wanted to marry each other and the father of the accused had agreed to this, but the girl's family did not.

"The girl died during treatment at around 8 am on Thursday. The only accused has already been arrested and sent to jail... We have video statements of people saying that the accused was present at the panchayat when the incident took place... However, we are collecting forensic evidence to support this," said Fatehpur SP Prashant Verma.

On Saturday, District Magistrate Sanjeev Singh had said that according to local villagers, the panchayat was about to end when the girl went inside her house and those at the panchayat saw fire and smoke coming out. A statement by police had said the panchayat was called after the victim and the accused, who were in a relationship for two years, were spotted together in an adjoining village on Friday. SHO of Mahila police station had said the girl shouted on her way to hospital that her uncle sexually assaulted her and set her on fire, but sources said that in her statement, the girl did not blame her uncle.

Ruckus in MP House
over bonus promise to wheat-growers

MILIND GHATWAI
BHOPAL, DECEMBER 19

THE ISSUE of paying bonuses to wheat-growers in Madhya Pradesh saw acrimonious exchanges between the treasury benches and the Opposition BJP in the Assembly on Thursday, with the BJP MLAs staging walkouts twice. During his tenure as Chief Minister, Shivraj Singh Chouhan had started the practice of paying a bonus over the Minimum Support Price (MSP) to wheat growers nearly a decade ago till the Narendra Modi government at the Centre raised the red flag, arguing that the populist measure was distorting the market price of the commodity besides saddling the Union government — which picks the MSP tab — with additional expenditure.

On Thursday, BJP lawmakers wanted the Kamal Nath government to come clean on whether it was going to pay the Rs 160 bonus per quintal announced by it in March this year. The Centre has refused to pay for seven lakh MT of the 73 lakh MT of wheat procured in the state, saying the bonus was responsible for the surplus procurement. The refusal has left the state with bill of Rs 1,400 crore.

Opposition MLAs repeatedly asked the government whether it was going to pay the bonus. They asked if the state government took the consent of the Centre when it promised the bonus.

In response, Nath said the BJP has 28 Lok Sabha members and they should take up the matter with the Union government. "Munh chalana aur sarkar chalane mein antar hota hai," the Chief Minister said, without referring to anyone in particular. BJP members vehemently protested against the comment, saying it was objectionable. Nath later said he did not target anyone but could not help it if Chouhan interpreted it that way.

Nath

During the session, Chouhan retorted, "Humne bhi sarkar chahi, munh nahai." Revenue Minister Govind Singh Rajput said the government will pay the bonus under a different name — Kisan Samruddhi Yojana. Former Cabinet minister Narottam Mishra countered this, saying that the government had not made a budgetary provision for making the payments.

Iterating that his government had paid bonus of Rs 265 per quintal under a different name, Chouhan asked Nath to pay the amount as compensation or under any different head.

Later, calling the Congress government anti-farmer, Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly Gopal Bhargava led a walkout by BJP members.
